

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Dave Hausmann, who has served 39 years with the state of South Dakota Department of Transportation; and,

Whereas, During Dave's career with the Department, he has given exemplary performance in the areas of project development, road design, and utilities offices; and,

Whereas, Through the years, Dave developed an efficient and organized system of coordinating with utility companies during the scope phase of highway improvement projects and ensuring utility companies are involved during the design phase of highway improvement projects, which has reduced costly delays during construction and has provided the traveling public with much more successful projects delivered on time and on budget; and,

Whereas, Dave's professionalism, honesty, loyalty, integrity, and working relationship of the highest caliber with the utility companies, state employees, and co-workers has set high standards within the Department, and he will be missed by his friends and co-workers; and,

Whereas, Dave will retire on January 8, 2016, to spend more time with his wife, Kathy, and family and to enjoy traveling, camping, and restoring and collecting vehicles and small scale tractors; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 8, 2016, as
